Final Numbers 2013

December

2014

Dear colleagues

On behalf of all IRODaT Staff, we are glad to present the final numbers of 71 countries in worldwide organ donation and transplantation activity of 2013. As usual, you, the official reporters, are the first ones to receive this international information.

This time, from the International Registry in Organ Donation and Transplantation, we would like to encourage you to invite new countries to join us! Increasing the IRODaT family we'll make our network even more powerful and helpful for all of us. As you already know, the aim of IRODaT Registry is to help the health professionals; researchers and general community to have access to verified and validate information. And we have good news: this year we have had an important increase of information demand in this sense! This is an accomplishment made by all of us!

Thank you IRODaT members!

Do not forget to visit periodically our (your) webpage www.irodat.org, where you will find the information from other countries and other news related on international organ donation and transplantation. And also through our Twitter account, where we already follow you, and we publish our congresses activity and others. Let's get in touch!

Once again, we would like to thank all your effort to develop the IRODaT network, and encourage the donation and transplantation activity in your own countries.

Never forget that life is a gift that must be cared.

IRODaT Team

1. WORLDWIDE DONATION ACTIVITY

The International Registry in Organ Donation and Transplantation – IRODaT presents, in the next figures, the worldwide living and actual deceased donation activity of 2013 in donors per million population (pmp) numbers. It is also included an extra graph where is represented the numbers of the Organ Donors after Cardiac Death. After those it is showed the same activity separated in four big regions: Europe, America, Asia–Oceania and Africa – Middle East. All of them are compared with the numbers of the previous year 2012.

Remind that all this information, numbers and figures, as well as this Newsletter are available on IRODaT website www.irodat.org
